CIBAFI Online Professional Certification Programmes

Human resources development is a prerequisite for the advancement of the Islamic financial services industry (IFSI). With the industry's rapid global growth, there is a continuous need to develop qualified human capital not only to deliver high-quality services to clients, but also to uphold the value proposition of Islamic finance in practice and contribute effectively to the real economy. CIBAFI's professional development objective addresses this essential need through delivering executive programmes, technical workshops, and professional certification programmes across various specializations.

CIBAFI is pleased to present the schedule of its Online Professional Certification Programmes for the period January – June 2026.
